Fee Battle Slated For December 5

QUICK TRIAL MOVE FAILS

Franco Says Victory Near

Trial of the $100,000 fee suit against Sheriff Logan Jackson today was continued by Judge Louis Drapeau of Ventura, to December 5, and records of the sheriff's office meanwhile were thrown open by the sheriff to special counsel for the county supervisors, to determine amounts of fees received by the office.

While vigorously opposing further delay to trial of the case, attorneys F. C. Drumm and J. B. Tucker, counsel for Sheriff Jackson, stipulated that all records of the sheriff at present available should be turned over to counsel for the supervisors, and that they may employ their own auditor to examine the sheriff's books.

Question of Law

The issue in the case thus was reduced to a question of law, whether the sheriff is legally entitled to his fees, or must turn them over to the county.

Judge Drapeau today ordered counsel for the supervisors to file an amended complaint by October 31, if they desire to amend; and allowed counsel for the sheriff an additional ten days in which to file an amended answer, if the complaint is amended.

Judge Drapeau indicated, in his rulings in the case, that he desired to give the supervisors opportunity to learn the amount of fees and revenues received by the sheriff, whether such matters are admissible as evidence in the trial or not.

GRAND JURY SET TO RECEIVE WITNESSES

BULLETIN
All candidates for the office of district attorney this afternoon had been summoned to testify before the Orange county grand jury, and at 2:30 p.m. three of them already had appeared at the secret quiz. The latter were W. Maxwell Burke, George Holden and Elmer Guy. A. P. Nelson and Joel Ogle were scheduled to appear later this afternoon, while District Attorney W. F. Menton is conducting the investigation.

The county grand jury, in session today after a fortnight's recess, was expected to begin its examination of witnesses this afternoon, in connection with its investigation of the political pamphlet, "Fools Rush In."

The grand jury was in conference throughout the morning session with District Attorney W. F. Menton, giving rise to speculation whether the grand jury and the district attorney might again unite in carrying on the investigation.

Independent Course

At the start of its investigation, the grand jury was understood to have determined upon a separate and independent course.

Recessing today at noon, the grand jury was in session again at 1 p.m. with the district attorney again in attendance.

ROOSEVELT RESTS

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Oct. 3.—(UP)—Weary after more than a week of intensive work in the interest of peace, President Roosevelt rested today.

He expected to stay here until next Sunday night. He had no callers scheduled for today and White House attaches said that they knew of none to come during the week.

"SLAP-DAFFY" SANTA ANANS FIND MOSQUITOES' HOMELAND

The hordes of mosquitoes that have been pestering Santa Anans for the last week are not from the outfall sewer but are probably from the salt marsh regions along the coast, according to an opinion received today from the bureau of sanitary engineering at Berkeley by County Health Inspector Dr. H. K. Sutherland.

"Mr. Ades Dorsalis," who is better known as the salt marsh mosquito, is the one Santa Anans have been slapping for the past week or more and, according to information from Berkeley, is quite a traveler, often ranging 10 or 15 miles from home in search of tender ankles.

Point to Tides

An unusually high tide last week was also held responsible for the influx of the pests, Dr. Sutherland said.

Franco Says Victory Near

HENDAYE, French-Spanish Frontier, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Insurgent armies continued a stubborn offensive against Loyalists on the Ebro front today after Generalissimo Francisco Franco broadcast a Nationalist claim that "the hour of victory is near."

The civil war, almost halted by drenching rains during the recent European crisis, continued as a stalemate, advices from both sides indicated.

Although there have been authoritative indications that Italian volunteers in the Nationalist armies were being withdrawn, both Italians and Germans participated in aerial bombardment as the Insurgent attack was resumed along the Ebro river sector. Tanks and artillery joined in the offensive, which Nationalists said made some progress.

Loyalists reported one Italian tri-motored bombing plane was shot down and that the Nationalists suffered heavy losses in a vain attempt to advance in the Molino de

NINE ADVENTURERS START RIVER TRIP

LEE'S FERRY, Ariz., Oct. 3.—(UP)—Nine men were reported riding the rapids of the turbulent Colorado river above here today.

Buzz Holmstrom of Coquille, Ore., and Amos Burg of Portland, Ore., bound for the Gulf of California on a 1,200 mile journey, were reported to have passed Hite, Utah, a remote river crossing, after a voyage from Greenriver, Utah.

The U. S. Geological Survey here was informed that an 83-year-old Columbus, O., manufacturer and sportsman, Julius F. Stone, and his party of six explorers had joined Holmstrom and Burg at Hite for the 170-mile trip to Lee's ferry.

Second Trip

Stone, who traveled the Colorado in 1909 and expressed a desire "to see the river once more," was accompanied by his son, George Stone, Columbus banker; William Chryst, Dayton, O., manufacturer; Dr. A. L. Ingleby, Frank Swain and Charles Kellyn all of Salt Lake City, Utah; and Dr. R. G. Frazier of Bingham, Utah.

The large party is voyaging as far as Lee's Ferry through the Colorado's precipitous cliffs. Holmstrom and Burg expect to continue to Guaymas, Mex.

Rites Held For Veteran Actor

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 3.—(UP)—A few old friends gathered today at funeral rites for Conway Tearle, 60, veteran actor who was one of the leading stars of the silent movies. Tearle died Saturday night of heart disease.

His body will be cremated following today's private Christian funeral services.

He had been ill for a long time and had gone to St. Vincent's hospital two weeks ago. Adele Rowland, former musical comedy actress, his third wife, was at his bedside when he died.

ROOSEVELT RESTS

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 3.—(UP)—J. M. Willett got a cramp in his left leg after he went to sleep last night and got up to walk around a bit to ease the pain. Mrs. Willett, believing that a burglar was trying to get in the house, seized a pistol. Physicians said Willett would recover from a wound in the hip.

DETROIT, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Pat Rollins, 32, who telephoned police three times before he could convince them he was a fugitive from California, was found today to be under indictment for a slaying in Los Angeles seven years ago.

Rollins was arrested in a downtown restaurant from where he repeatedly had telephoned police that he was ready to surrender. It was not until he told authorities that his brother, Edward, was held on a murder charge in Chicago and that he had information on the case, that detectives were sent to the restaurant.

A check on Rollins' fingerprints revealed that he was indicted as James F. Cody, 53, nephew of the late Col. William F. (Buffalo Bill) Cody, was held here today on a charge of passing $2600 in worthless checks.

Police said the suspect said a dinner was all he received from the checks. Authorities quoted him as saying he was the son of Nathan Cody Jr., brother of Buffalo Bill, and that he was reared by the former Indian scout in his wild west show, one of his duties being to toss targets for Annie Oakley.

In the report from the state board it was revealed that the larvae, or wiggler, gathered in the vicinity of the outfall sewer were of the culex variety. This variety usually stays within two or three miles of the place of origin. The coming of cooler weather will help in the abatement of the pests, Dr. Sutherland said.

Boyd said the approaching summer has made it necessary for the expedition to procure a refrigerator for its advance base at Lake Habema, 300 miles inland. Archbold and Deputy Coroner Bert Castelz were called to investigate and pronounced Mr. Springer dead.

BARNEY BOYD, radio contact man for Richard Archbold, associate director of the American museum of Natural History, said today that on Oct. 15, Archbold will make an 800-mile flight from his base at Hollandia, New Guinea, to Port Moresby, British Guinea—to buy an ice box.

Boyd said the approaching summer has made it necessary for the expedition to procure a refrigerator for its advance base at Lake Habema, 300 miles inland. Archbold will use his famed "flying laboratory" for the shopping trip.

Czech Ready To Surrender Area To Hungary; Lose 80,000 People

NEW DEAL ATTACKS UTOPIAN SHORTCUTS

PRAGUE, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Having surrendered territory to Germany and Poland, Czechoslovakia entered negotiations with Hungary today that will end with her surrendering more.

Foreign Minister Kamil Krofta informed the Hungarian minister that the government wished to establish a Czech-Hungarian commission at once to settle the Hungarian minority claims. These negotiations were expected to end with Czechoslovakia losing some 80,000 more citizens and some 200 more square miles.

Orderly Occupation

Government reports indicated that German occupation of Sudetenland and Polish occupation of the Teschen area had been orderly. The Czech troops had withdrawn in order, displaying their absolute discipline, it was said. Only one incident was reported. That was in the Gratzern district of Sudetenland where German troops were said to have marched in prematurely. Czech army commanders pointed out to German officers that they were not supposed to march in until today, whereupon the Germans withdrew.

While liberalization of the New Deal's social security program will come too late to affect pension schemes that will be issues in many congressional elections, administration leaders feel that prompt action must be taken to prevent a further growth of such programs.

A. F. OF L. ATTACKS NLRB AT CONVENTION

READY TO PUSH OTHER ISSUES

CONVENTION HALL, Houston, Tex., Oct. 3.—(UP)—The 58th annual convention of the American Federation of Labor which will chart the organization's future attitude toward the New Deal and its varied social and labor reforms, opened today.

Gov. James V. Allred, recently appointed to the federal bench, led a group of state and city dignitaries in welcoming the delegates.

They stood and cheered when Allred paused at one point in his speech and presented President William Green of the federation with a "ten gallon" hat.

Gets Big Hat

Allred praised labor's persistent fight for social security and for other legislation designed to aid the common man.

A mass of work faced the delegates, 81 resolutions having been introduced 30 days prior to the opening of the convention as required by the federation's constitution. They ranged in scope from condemnation of the personnel of the national relations board to a demand that an immediate pardon be granted to Thomas J. Mooney, serving a life term in a California prison in connection with the San Francisco preparedness day bombing.

Urge Peace

Only three of the resolutions touched on the feud between the federation and the rival Committee for Industrial Organization. One called for "less antagonism" between the two factions, cautioning that "in union there is strength." Another urged the A. F. of L. executive council to initiate new peace talks with the C. I. O. The third, offered by delegates of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees International Alliance and Bartenders International League, attacked the federation for ordering its forces out of Labor's Non-Partisan League, C. I. O. political arm.

This move, the resolution said, "plays into the hands of the reactionaries and endangers the gains made by labor in the recent period."

Apparently Nihos, found here several weeks ago in the same plight, suffered a heart attack.

Traffic Signal Halts Fidgety Folks and Cars

QUINCY, Mass. (UP)—A new traffic signal devised to stop motorists and pedestrians from "jumping the light" was demonstrated at the motor vehicles registry office here recently by Arthur M. Longway of Endicott, N. Y., its inventor.

The signal consists of an aluminum encased circle of 16 bulbs, 15 white and one red. The lights indicate the number of seconds before the light is about to change, thus eliminating the possibility of a motorist being "caught" by a changing light at an intersection. Starting 16 seconds before the signal changes, the bulbs are illuminated around the circle at the rate of one each second, with the red bulb giving the final warning. The circle may be attached to any ordinary traffic signal, says Longway.

Theft of the school girl traffic sign at 15th and Ross streets Saturday was reported to police by a street department employee.

Man, 61, With Fractured Leg Found Near Span

Samuel E. Tarvin, 61, 275 North Orange avenue, Orange, was in county hospital today suffering from a broken leg after lying helpless all night beside the Glassell street bridge in the south part of Orange.

According to his report, he fell from the bridge. He told Orange police he called for help after the accident about 8 p. m. and that a WPA watchman on the construction job there, came to him at about 10 p. m.

Tarvin alleged that the watchman later left him, saying it was about time for him to go off duty. At 5:30 a. m. today, Orange police received a call from an Orange citizen, stating a man was struggling along Glassell, dragging the fractured leg on the ground.

Police contacted the WPA watchman on duty at the time of the accident but he denied hearing anyone call or having anything to do with Tarvin. His patrol extends along the creek from the Santa Fe tracks to the Glassell street bridge. Police were informed.

Lurie announced he will go to Hollywood this week to confer with United Artists officials, through whom the Mae West pictures may be released if pending arrangements are completed.

Lurie said the other members of the company were Ralph Pincus, prominent San Francisco theater manager, and James Timony.

If the windows and doors start rattling, don't be alarmed and think it's because of an earthquake. According to announcement by Capt. R. J. Brainerd, chief of staff United States warships will hold day and night practice firings off the Southern California coast starting today. The practice will last a week.

Where Eight Died In Fort Peck Dam Cave-In

A tremendous earth slide which carried away part of the upstream face of Fort Peck dam, near Glasgow, Mont., and which probably killed eight men, is seen in the center of the above air photo. The PWA project is the largest earth-fill dam in the world, and damage is expected to cost $2,000,000 to repair, though the 180-mile lake backed up in the Missouri behind the dam is believed safely held by the main sections of the dam, which stood firm. Cause of the slide had not yet been determined by army engineers in charge.

ports of him in Southern France.

Passport Grabbed

It was reported on good authority in Milan that police had taken up Toscanini's passport because of his anti-Fascist attitude. He had been more outspoken than usual. Italian authorities were said to believe. Before his return to Milan this summer, Toscanini had refused to conduct the famous music festival at Salzburg, Austria, because Germany, Italy's ally, had absorbed that country.

Though his passport was taken up, no watch was placed on him in Milan and there were no restrictions on his movement. This, it was said, would have enabled him to cross the frontier without difficulty.

The Republican campaign heads at the same time renewed their attack against the $30 Every Thursday pension plan and assailed the Democratic candidates for countering it.

Dr. Franklin, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, was scheduled to speak at the Hotel Claremont, Berkeley. He indicated he would concentrate on a criticism of the pension plan.

Bourbons Make Plans

Meantime the Democrats organized their campaign in behalf of the Olson-Downey-Patterson slate under the leadership of William J. Malone and Frank Hennessey.

Several meetings were arranged today and tomorrow to complete plans for the November general election campaign drive.

Gov. Merriam was expected to appoint Andrew J. Gallagher, former San Francisco supervisor, to the post on the board of equalization left vacant by the death of John C. Corbett.

Gallagher was nominated by the Republican state central committee. His Democratic opponent at the November election will be George Reilly.

The Czechoslovak government on Saturday had responded at the last moment to a Polish ultimatum that it surrender the Polish minority area at once or risk capture. The Czechs took from the Poles in 1921, while Poland was at war with Russia, until all is reoccupied within 10 days.

"Germany! Sieg heil!"

Thus Hitler symbolically accepted sovereignty over the Sudetenland, the territory which nearly caused a European war.

"The German nation," Hitler said, "stands in closed formation from north to south and east to west. All are comrades ready to stake their lives for each other."

POLISH TROOPS TAKE CZECH AREA

TESCHEN, Poland, Oct. 3.—(UPI)—Polish troops extended their occupation of former Czechoslovak territory today and by the end of the week will have occupied 325 square miles containing a population of 260,000, of which 160,000 are Poles.

Until yesterday this city straddled the Polish-Czech frontier. Then, without ceremony, Polish soldiers crossed the short bridge over the Olsa river into the Czech city and methodically took possession.

Francisco, on the second anniversary of taking power in insurgent Spain, broadcast a prediction if triumph. He said that he was determined to drive the "criminal" Loyalist forces from the country.

REBEL PLANES BOMB BARCELONA

BARCELONA, Oct. 3.—(UPI)—An insurgent seaplane raided the port of Barcelona early today, scoring a direct hit on the British steamer African Mariner and slightly damaging the British steamer Lake Geneva. Sheads along the waterfront were damaged.

Arizonans Kill Pension Plan

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 3.—(UPI)—The California $30-Ever-Thursday plan for aged jobless relief hoped into the Arizona legislature Saturday, but it popped right out again today, so far as any possibility of action on it is concerned.

Rep. William Gillette introduced the plan in a resolution, subject to referendum vote of the people. The legislature defeated a motion to have the resolution in print, thereby forestalling any further action.

SEAL BEACH, Oct. 3.—Fathers and teachers will share honors Tuesday evening when the Seal Beach P.T.A. combines honors for both in their first regular session of the year. Father's night celebration is for the first time this year held in October, instead of November. Mrs. Glenn A. Pierpont, president, will preside, with the program in charge of Mrs. William Bowers. The meeting will convene at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Temperature In S. A. Fails To Get Above "75"

For the first time in several months the peak temperature of the day yesterday failed to get above the 75-degree mark in Santa Ana as the autumn season seemed to arrive with a rush.

Unless there is an "unusual" change in the weather, the high mark of 96 at 2:30 p. m. on September 21 seems destined to be the top for this year.

As far as a hasty check of the records during the past several months the low of yesterday, 55 degrees, was the coolest weather in the city in three months.

Two petty thefts were under investigation of Santa Ana police today following reports made by victims. Roy Felker, Tustin, reported during the week-end that his aviation zipper jacket, size 38; a rubber cushion, and a pair of soggy, valued at $23, were stolen from his motorcycle. R. G. Kelley, 1720 North Broadway, said an alterna-tor and screw-driver were stolen from his car Saturday night.

Manuel Garcia, Route 1, Santa Ana, alleging that a car bearing license 6-T-1503, damaged his car, asked police Saturday evening to give him the name of the registered owner. A checkup with state officials at Sacramento shows license 6-T-1503 is registered in the name of Fred Barmon, 1503 French street, police reported.

Don Abbott, watchman at the high school, reported at 1:10 a. m. yesterday that a prowler ran from the school grounds when he turned on a light in the building. Police were unable to locate the prowler, believed to have been preparing to burglarize the building.

Two local boys, 14 and 17 years old, respectively, were caught near the American Legion hall Saturday at midnight just after they stole a radiator ornament from a car belonging to P. M. LaSalle, 546 South Helena, Anaheim. The boys were arrested, and one was given a warning by Officers C. V. Adams and J. B. Stephenson against committing thefts and were sent home after LaSalle declared he did not wish to prosecute. The ornament was returned to the owner.

At request of Major John Naton of the local Salvation Army, police last evening took Louis B. Chasten, Ventura painter, to county hospital for treatment of an infected throat. Chasten had been staying at the Army shelter.

A checkup with state officials at Sacramento shows license 6-T-1503 is registered in the name of Fred Barmon, 1503 French street, police reported.

Don Abbott, watchman at the high school, reported at 1:10 a. m. yesterday that a prowler ran from the school grounds when he turned on a light in the building. Police were unable to locate the prowler, believed to have been preparing to burglarize the building.

Two local boys, 14 and 17 years old, respectively, were caught near the American Legion hall Saturday at midnight just after they stole a radiator ornament from a car belonging to P. M. LaSalle, 546 South Helena, Anaheim. The boys were arrested, and one was given a warning by Officers C. V. Adams and J. B. Stephenson against committing thefts and were sent home after LaSalle declared he did not wish to prosecute. The ornament was returned to the owner.

At request of Major John Naton of the local Salvation Army, police last evening took Louis B. Chasten, Ventura painter, to county hospital for treatment of an infected throat. Chasten had been staying at the Army shelter.

SHORT SHORT SPORT STORIES

Pigskin Review, official program of Trojan games, lists "Rusty" Roquet from Cider Point, Ill. Anaheim papers please copy....Incidentally, it looks like "Rusty" is going to rust on the S. C. bench. He's sat out two full games now while other Trojan tackles have shown nothing but willingness....Understand both Roquet and Carl Benson are going to save their season of eligibility unless they get the trip to Ohio State this week.

Blue Monday Department: Something ought to be done about Collie Announcer Charley Keppen, Invariably, in giving out results of important games, he gibbly reels off one team and then lets you squirm 10 or 15 seconds before stating the score of the second team. Kinda like offering a kid a piece of chocolate and then holding it over his head just out of his reach.

Citrus Belt league schools have agreed to limit practice periods of sports other than football. Hereafter, no basketball coaching will be allowed until November 15 and none will be permitted during the Christmas holidays. Chief offender was said to be Chaffey, which often began cage practice with the opening of the fall semester, although other teams were guilty of "emphasis" too. Track work starts January 15, baseball March 1.

As in Santa Ana, a Pasadena business concern is awarding a weekly merchandise prize to the "Bulldog of the Week." They had a tough time picking the first winner between Tom Collins and "Whisky" Sauer....Vandermost's picks its Den-of-the-Week Wednesday.

First hunter I know to get his deer limit in Orange county was Delbert Beard of 1514 North Broadway. He plucked a four-pointer a week ago and got a three-pointer yesterday. Both weighed around 150 pounds. Beard bagged both bucks in Trabuco.

Home from Molice where he bat-ed .370 against Western league pitching, Louie Neva Novikoff says he doesn't know where he'll be assigned next season but hopes he gets a chance in the Coast league. He's Los Angeles property yet may be shifted to Birmingham, another Cub farm club. The Novikoffs are infanticipating...in about two months.

Deputy Sheriff Jim Musick, great Trojan of past years and a former all-pro fullback, appeared in a new role yesterday. He turned lecturer, spoke on "Football and Clean Living" at White Temple church in Anaheim.

As the California Special pulled out of San Francisco and nosed north last week, Coach "Stub" Allison came upon Assistant Coach Jeff Cravath, oldtime Santa Ana, in a huddle with his California Bears. "So," cracked Coach Allison, "I kicked him out of our car and ordered him into the adjoining section that contained newspapermen and OTHER riff raff."

Ernestine Santa Ana Cravath cracked back that it didn't make any difference. He was going up to Pullman to scout Washington State, not California.

For more years than they care to remember, the Western division of the Southern California Junior College association has been the poor stepchild of football. But the worm seems to have turned. Pasadena manhandles both Santa Ana and San Bernardino, former kingpins of the Eastern division. Compton awakes from a long sleep, trims Riverside, 12-0, Los Angeles gives Santa Ana many an uncertain moment, finally loses only 6-0. Incidentally, Ventura gave Pasadena as close a game as Santa Ana and San Bernardino. The score was 20-6.

Al Simmons And Club Owner In Bitter Row

WASHINGTON.—(UP)—Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Nationals, precipitated a crisis with Al Simmons today that threatened to terminate the career of the hard-hitting outfielder as a member of the Washington club.

Griffith fined Simmons $200 after the former league batting champion engaged fans here in what Griffith said was a profane argument. The club owner also cited Simmons to President Will Harridge of the American league and K. M. Landis, baseball's high commissioner.

Simmons immediately charged Simmons was motived by "mercenary" considerations. He said he would "never take contract" with Griffith again.

The Washington leftfielder charged Griffith cracked down with the fine out of resentment. He explained he has an agreement whereby he receives a bonus for batting over .300 for the season. By collecting two hits in the first game of a doubleheader with Philadelphia—the closing game of the season—Simmons boosted his season's average to .301.

'Yankees Should Win In 5 Games'

BEARS, OREGON CONFERENCE'S ONLY UNBEATEN

BY JAMES A. SULLIVAN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO — Pacific Coast conference football teams entered the third week of the fall campaign this week with only two of the eight members presenting clean records.

Only University of California,

1937 champions, and University of Oregon, given a shot in the arm by a new coach, have come through early tests without defeat.

The conference was in for further trouble this week-end when one of its teams, disappointing U. S. C., journeys east to play Ohio State. Troy is due for defeat from a team which Saturday trimmed Indiana, 6-0, while the Trojans were having a time beating Oregon State, 7-0.

Oregon Draws Bye This Week

Oregon had an idle day, so the surprising team led by "Tex" Oliver, formerly of Arizona, is sure to go at least one more week with its record unmarred. The Webbs accomplished their latest upset Saturday by beating out U. C. L. A., 14-12, on a second half rally.

California's record also seemed safe, as the powerful Bears, 27-3 victors Saturday over Washington State, take on little Cal Aggies and the slightly larger College of Pacific in a doubleheader. Pacific, coached by venerable Amos Alonso Stagg, bowed 7-0, to Loyola Friday night.

Oregon State gets a chance at its first win by taking Portland University. Matt Matthews' team, however, may surprise as it was strong enough to beat Willamette, 20-0, Friday night.

Two conference games are on the schedule. Washington, a big disappointment with a loss and a tie so far, heads for a comeback win at Los Angeles against U. C. L. A. Idaho tied the Huskies, 12-12, and the Uclans bowed to Oregon Saturday.

Stanford, whose opener against Santa Clara was pathetic, goes against another team with a pathetic record, Washington State. Coach "Tiny" Thornhill began a reorganization at Stanford after Santa Clara wallop the conference team, 22-0, and had two other touchdowns called back.

Broncos Meet Texas Aggies

Santa Clara, which showed promise of having another mighty team, seeks its twelfth straight win against the Texas Aggies in San Francisco. St. Mary's, another power among the independents and victor, 20-0, over Gonzaga yesterday, travels to Los Angeles for a Sunday game against Loyola.

Idaho shifts from its conference wrecking activities to play North Dakota State, and Montana, which held strong. University of San Francisco to a scoreless tie, meets an intersectional opponent in Du Paul.

San Francisco, still unscorched in three games, takes on Santa Barbara State Friday.

Apart from the conference games, scores of Saturday's play along the western front included:

Fresno State 34, San Diego Marines 14; Nevada 12, Flagstaff Teachers 12.

Pacific U. 21, Puget Sound 0; San Diego State 8, Occidental 0.

Pomona 38, Redlands 6.

Cal Aggies 20, San Francisco State 6.

Utah State 44, College of Idaho 0.

Southern Methodist 29, Arizona 7.

Utah 34, Montana State 0.

Wyoming 0, Colorado college 0.

Cal Frosh 14, U. C. L. A. Frosh 6.

Santa Clara Frosh 13, San Mateo State 6.

Lou Nova Shot At Louis In Offing

Tony Galento, the Jersey boy, and Tommy Farr, the Welshman who has run second more often than William Jennings Bryan. Galento and Farr have aligned themselves with the Philadelphia faction headed by Herman Taylor, making that entente fully as strong as the Phillips.

The winner of the Nova-Barlund scrap will draw either Bob Pastor, the amateur woodchopper, or Maxie Baer.

Nova got his big chance when Pastor, in the heat of trying to get steamed up in a workout at Saratoga Springs, mistook his shin for a log and sliced off enough meat to require 26 stitches.

Fighters given an opportunity of this kind have in the past frequently applied a strangulation hold and tossed it for a fall.

Neither Nova nor Barlund ever will dethrone Louis, but Nova is the superior boxer, smart, strong, and takes a punch well. Neither is any great shucks as a boxer. Both are slower than Gus Mancuso.

Neither has a record to write home about, but here I give Nova the bulge because he obtained a 10-round draw, as debatable as the decision may have been, with Pastor, despite the fact that he is a bit undersized as heavyweights go, perhaps is the best in the world today next to Louis. Barlund has tackled no one of Pastor's ability.

It was a typical Feller pitching job—spotty. When he was good, he was perfect, once fanning six straight men, but when he began to lose control the other side began to make runs. Bob gave up five bases on balls, three of them in the sixth when the Tigers made two runs. Chet Laabs was the chief victim of Feller's fireball, striking out five times. Big Hank Greenberg, the man who most of the 27,000 Cleveland fans had come to see try and break Babe Ruth's home run record, fanned twice, and his longest hit was a double, leaving his homer total at 58 for the year.

FELLER FANS 18 FOR RECORD YET LOSES

(By United Press)

A private niche in baseball's hall of fame was reserved today for Bob Feller, new strikeout king of the major leagues.

Ending the 1938 season in a blaze of glory, the 19-year-old Cleveland fireballer fanned 18 men.

Feller, who struck out 17 Philadelphia Athletics in 1936 to tie the record created by "Dizzy" Dean in 1934, set his new record against the Detroit Tigers in the first game of a doubleheader. Despite his performance Cleveland lost both ends of the twin bill, 4-1 and 10-8.

Uses Roast Beef To Hook Turtles

WALTHAM, Mass.—(UP)—Harold Mansfield, 63, scorns the usual method of catching big turtles which have been killing ducks in the Charles river. Turtle-hunters usually wait for their prey to climb onto a rock, and then whack them with an oar.

But Mansfield uses a heavy bamboo pole, a line and a piece of roast beef for bait. The turtles bite through the beef, and presto, are hooked and brought to shore in a net.

Arab Rebels In Their Mountain Hideaway

Fierce Arab rebels who are defying British authority in Palestine are shown in this exclusive picture made at the secret mountain stronghold of Abdul Razek, leader of the rebel army. The photographer negotiated for weeks before he was allowed, under heavy guard, to visit the Arab stronghold.

READING

Once children have learned to read they fill in their odd minutes reading whatever comes to hand, and often what they find is empty, or uninteresting, or downright harmful. The adolescent young persons, who is a senior in high school or a college entrant, finds enough good reading for his needs because he can use whatever material the adults leave about. It is the in-between group, the junior high school group, the high school freshman who needs good reading.

It is not easy to provide this because the youngster's tastes are unformed, his appetite for excitement sharp, his power of selection very limited. The books in the library are not always those he wants, and the books he wants are few in number and come rarely. Sprinkled through the year as Christmas and birthday presents, special gifts for special occasions, they do not reach far. That leaves the younger readers with the odds and ends of papers, the funnies, the joke papers, an occasional magazine.

The magazine is usually suited to the older readers. The material is beyond him in vocabulary, in style, in content. It is usually outside his experiences. The story, when there is one, is not the simple wholesome tale of adventure and struggle akin to his own experiences, but the overdone movie sort of thing that excites without nourishing him in any way.

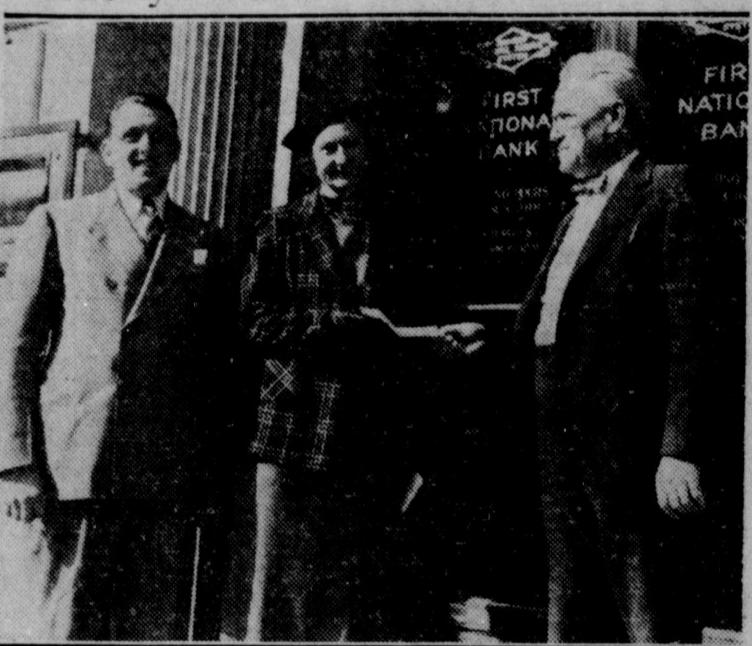

Now and then we find a good magazine suited to these children, and when we do we ought to get it for their daily reading. It ought to be of handy size, for the children read it on the bus, the train, in between games or lessons. The print ought to be very clear because it is read under trying circumstances. The paper ought to be the sort that lends itself to good ink and sharp print because these children's eyes are already sorely tried.

But the inside of the book is more important than all else. For these youngsters the story is the thing. Now the story need not always be fiction. These children are interested in the news of the world. They like to know what is going on abroad. Who does what and who says which, is as important to Sixteen Years as to Twenty. They like to read about people. The men and women who are the headliners of the sports world are their heroes. They like jokes and conundrums, riddles and puzzles, if they are not overdone. They are fed up with tests, having enough of them in school, but they are not averse to paragraphs of general information if they are brightly written. They enjoy verse, the lighter sort; and they will read a little heavy prose if it is well-spaced and has a point easy to see. They want plenty of white space in their reading.

We often shake our heads about the reading our children do, and about the limitations of their interests. "All our children think about is the world series," lamented a scholarly gentleman. "The children of foreign lands are keen on politics, religious education, the questions of the day. What is the matter with our boys and girls?"

Nothing at all. Try them with a magazine suited to their interests.

Lucky Housewife Receives Prize

Mrs. Lyle Pease, 1124 South Ross street, is the lucky Santa Ana housewife who won $900 cash award from the Broadway and West Coast theaters last Thursday night. She is shown in the center, above, with W. B. Williams, cashier of the First National Bank, presenting her with the check, which she received Saturday. George King, manager of the Broadway and West Coast, where the Fortunes Whirl event takes place each Thursday night, is shown at the left.

RUSSIANS CURE GASTRIC ULCER

MOSCOW, (UP)—Injection of goat's blood into the veins of human beings in experiments at the Institute of Blood Transfusion of Moscow has been found to cure gastric ulcers with remarkable speed and without recurrence.

Two hundred cases have been treated successfully and in following up over a period of two years there has been no return of the malady. The treatment also has been found successful in treating skin diseases and tropical ulcers, but is somewhat less effective than in cases of gastric ulcer.

Five cubic centimeters of goat's blood are injected into the patient at a treatment. After the second transfusion pain disappears and the ulcer begins to heal, it is said.

Institute Head Explains

Andrew Bagdasarov, head of the institute, who takes a special interest in the experiments, explained the effect of the treatment non-technically as follows:

"The curative effect of heterogenous blood is based on the fact that heterogenous blood contains alien proteins or albumins which start a counteraction with the proteins in the blood of the patient. This causes a precipitation of protein micelles with a beneficial reaction of the organism and its tissues which leads to healing processes."

Experiments also have been conducted with the blood of oxen, dogs and rabbits, but blood from these animals was found to be toxic and to give more chance of infection because they are not so clean.

Goat's blood was found to be nearest to human blood, just as goat's milk more nearly resembles human milk.

Situated in an old but well-kept building on one of Moscow's big boulevards, the institute bustles with activity. Employees, physicians and research workers seem very busy.

Repository for Transfusions

About 10 per cent of Moscow's 4,900 annual blood transfusions are done here, and blood from donors stored for quick dispatch to any of the city's hospitals.

Storage of blood, while not an exclusive Soviet development, is used more extensively elsewhere and the process used is declared to be the best. Ninety per cent of blood transfusions in the Soviet Union are done with preserved blood.

Addition of 10 cubic centimeters of 6 per cent lemon acid sodium ests and rendering powers and see what happens.

WOMEN VOTERS PLAN DINNER

One of the interesting features of the State convention to be held by the California League of Women Voters October 4th, 5th and 6th at Hotel Huntington in Pasadena will be the Little Dinner which will take place Wednesday evening. Delegates will be hard put to decide what they wish served with their meal for six chairmen will vie with each other in offering entertainment at their various tables.

"Watch Them While They Work" is the slogan adopted by Mrs. Harold Nachtrieb, a director of the State league and president of the Berkeley league, to entice members to join with her in a discussion of the league's observance of administrative agencies.

Subject Selected

"How to Gain Knowledge and be Influential in Legislation" will be the subject of the little dinner presided over by Mrs. A. P. Harrison of Stockton.

At the "Highway or Dead Ends" dinner Mrs. Lovell Langstroth, president of the San Francisco Center will conduct a lively discussion on Study Group Problems.

"The Informer" group over which Mrs. Paul Ludolph of Marin county who is the state register and vote chairman, will preside, will concern itself with election activities.

Censorship Groups

Just to be sure the public really gets all the important league news at once there will be a "For Immediate Release" dinner in charge of Mrs. Allyn G. Smith of Berkeley who is the state publicity chairman. At this time all local news chairmen who have been assigned previously to "cover" different phases of the convention will bring their stories for censorship or approval by representatives of the press who will tell them if their stuff is "hot" or why not. Mrs. Zilla Estcourt of the San Francisco Chronicle will be one of the important guests from the press who will give advice to the cub reporters from the league.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling germ-laden phlegm. The Medical Profession has for generations recognized the benefit of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a good dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and may be taken frequently by both adults and children.

Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles due to common colds hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund your money on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. Yessir—That's a Lot of Mouth

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 3.—Idol Chatter: When Carole Lombard loses her temper (fortunately, she seldom does) I always think of Kipling's immortal line about the female of the species. Look alikes: Joan Bennett, in a black wig, and Hedy Lamarr. The "wild pheasants" that highlight the RKO cafe's menu are grown on Victor McLaglen's La Canada ranch. Ode to coincidence: Judith Barrett, the shapeliest beauty on the Paramount lot, was born in Venus, Texas. Bill Powell has never lost that brooding expression since Jean Harlow died.

Odd that Mary Pickford, the one star who seldom wore street make-up, should wond' in the cosmetic business. Barry Norton must have filed a claim on the fountain of youth—he doesn't look a day older than when he played the famous "mother's boy" scene in "The Big Parade." Come to think of it, I don't believe I've ever seen Charles Boyer indulge in an off-screen smile. Wish I could remember to ask Warner Baxter for his chili con carne recipe—it's tops.

If anyone has a pair of condor wings for sale, he should contact M-G-M; they're trying to outfit the flying monkeys for "The Wizard of Oz." In-a-line description of Stan Laurel: Puck in a fright wig, Marie Wilson is a confirmed sitter-downer, but she is always as breathless as though she had just finished a marathon run. Hollywood maxims: The bigger they are—the more the massuse has to pound off.

The sound mixer on the "Zaza" set at Paramount is one of Hollywood's most noted martinettes. Perched, hawk-like, behind his intricate instrument board, headphones glued to his ears, he thunders like an avenging Jove if anyone makes an uncalled-for sound. A shuffling foot, a side-line whisper—or, worst of all, a cough—and the floodgates of his wrath are instantly opened. Today, when I stopped on the set for a moment's chat with Claudette Colbert, he was in fine fettle. And, then, with Claudette midway through a difficult emotional close-up it happened. Someone emitted a blasting sneeze. We all looked apprehensively at the mixer expecting a roar of rage. Instead—to everyone's delight—he was speechless in red-faced embarrassment. He was the author of the sneeze.

Speaking of sneezes, I don't like to be a croaking prophet of disaster, but Melvyn Douglas should be warned that his latest practical joke is an invitation to homicide. Dipping his hand into a pall of water, he slips up behind his victim, fakes a sneeze and, at the same time, flips a shower of water on the fall guy's neck. It's very funny—but it isn't safe.

As little tokens of appreciation for kindnesses extended them, Florida Legionnaires presented alligators to various members of the film colony. Gloria Stuart was given one, decided that it was not a proper playmate for her three-year-old daughter, and has spent the last week trying to get rid of it. Another 'gator was presented to Russell Birdwell, a studio publicity director whose office is in Gloria Swanson's old dressing room. He put the reptile in a black onyx bathtub in which Gloria used to bathe—and the poor thing died within thirty-six hours. Birdwell insists that the thrill undoubtably gave it heart failure.

SEA SERPENT VISIT TO LOCAL BEACH RECALLED BY PHOTOS

Days when a sea serpent was washed upon the beach . . . days when Glenn Martin landed on the bay . . . days when hauling in the seine at sunset was a well attended ceremony—doubly so on Sunday.

Days when women fished off Newport pier in voluminous skirts covered with white aprons stood about their waists . . . when sunbonnets were commonly worn along the ocean front . . . when men wore bathing suits containing enough material to make two bathing suits for a modern gal . . . and women's bathing attire was fearfully and wonderfully made.

Those were the early days of Newport Beach faithfully recorded for posterity by Mrs. Arlene E. Jasper, of that city, in an interesting scrapbook filled with photographs and postcards dating from the year of 1892. The back of the book is filled with a number of pictures of Laguna Beach.

Sea Serpent Comes

The coming of the sea serpent February 25, 1901, is remembered by old timers and was thought by some of them to be a kind of "rib bon fish." So far as can be learned it was never identified as to species. The picture in Mrs. Jasper's book shows the huge creature stretched out along the sand to a length of about 30 feet, a large ridge of vertebrae along its back. Its head had the appearance of a great eagle.

The so-called sea serpent does not resemble in the slightest the creature described as inhabiting Loch Ness in Scotland, or that was seen in the sea.

The school has been fortunate to secure R. H. Drake, an outstanding authority on aviation, to instruct the class officials declared. Drake has been teaching aviation training for 12 years.

Way To License

All students who complete the course will be eligible to pass any rigid written tests required to get a government pilot's license. Subjects being taught by Drake include: Air commerce rules and regulations; theory of flight; navigation; and meteorology.

It was announced by the sponsors of the course that persons desiring to avail themselves of aviation theory background at the ground school do not necessarily have to be planning a flying career or even contemplating learning to fly. Both men and women are eligible. A number of girl students are taking the course which started last Wednesday. Those desiring to sign up are requested to come a half hour early Wednesday night in order to sign up for the course.

Study for classes in police school are beginning in earnest today as J. A. Schor, Los Angeles attorney, took over official duties.

NEW U. S. DEFICIT RECORD LIKELY

FIRST QUARTER BOOKS CLOSED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(UP)—The federal government closed its books for the first quarter of the 1939 fiscal year today with a gross deficit of $700,932,552.72, the treasury disclosed today.

The figure for the first quarter indicated that a new Roosevelt deficit record may be established when the accounts for the 1939 fiscal year are balanced next June 30.

Expenditures Soar

Income during the first three months amounted to $1,509,182,032, compared with $1,650,690,763 last year. Expenditures rose from $1,937,664,437 during the first three months of last year to $2,210,165,355 for the current quarter.

The deficit to date is only slightly less than the income for September, the month during which the third installments on 1937 income tax payments fall due. Through September 30, $710,602,997 was taken in, but expenditures exceeded that amount by $54,235,148.09.

WPA Largest Expense

The largest single item of expenditure was recorded by the works progress administration. The total of that relief spending was $559,333,347 during the first quarter, as against $333,926,213 for the same months last year.

Spending for the Civilian Conservation Corps and the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, the Farm Tenant Act and the Tennessee Valley Authority exceeded $210,000,000 compared with around $150,000,000 last year.

Near All-Time Peak

The outgo attributable to national defense amounted to $267,900,000 against $235,000,000 in the first three months of 1937. The gross deficit record set on September 30 stood at $8,892,725,250, about $15,000,000 short of the all time high established earlier this month.

The treasury's balance of cash, however, still stands at a point nearing an all time peak at $2,375,994,938. This working balance was swelled last month when the treasury borrowed $800,000,000 and it later was augmented when nearly $200,000,000 in gold was released from the general fund.

Most of the latter funds, however, went to purchase gold flowing to this country because of the international crisis.

Way To License

All students who complete the course will be eligible to pass any rigid written tests required to get a government pilot's license. Subjects being taught by Drake include: Air commerce rules and regulations; theory of flight; navigation; and meteorology.

Lock Shearing Nets Jail Term

FALL RIVER, Miss. (UPI)—When boy meets girl, that's romance. But when he shears her locks because the spurns his attentions, that's assault and battery. Joseph Simmons of Riverside, R. I., learned when he received a 30-day suspended jail sentence in a reverse Samson-Delilah incident.

Simmons was arrested while en route to apologize to Mrs. Mary Reis, a South Somerset widow, for the haircutting episode.

Youth Held As Bat Wielder

Leo Collins, 18-year-old CCC camp worker near San Juan Capistrano, was in county jail today on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon the person of George Hutchinson, forestry service man, and awaiting trial in superior court, records show.

The youth was held to answer Saturday by Justice John Landell of San Juan Capistrano at a preliminary hearing. It is expected information against Collins will be filed Friday in superior court. According to assertions, Collins struck Hutchinson with a baseball bat during an angry moment.

MUSICIANS TO CONVENE

The Orange County Teachers Music Association will meet in the Newport Beach Elementary school at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow, where they will hear Louis Danz speak on "Psychology of Art." Sponsors of the association have urged all members of the group to attend this important gathering.

Formal Church Wedding Is Of Wide Interest

A wedding which has aroused the interest of scores of friends of the young couple, was that occurring last night in First Presbyterian church where Miss Jeanette Bodman, charming daughter of the Joseph Alois Bodman of Newport Beach, became the bride of Ray H. Lindman, former Santa Ana now of Los Angeles.

Hailstead McCormac was at the organ for the nuptial music which included with various bridal melodies and the Wagner and Mendelssohn Wedding Marches, a solo group by Robert Dorier. His songs were "Because" and "Until."

Feathery white blossoms were mingled with chrysanthemums at the altar, where tapers gleamed from candelabra matching the white containers for the flowers. It was the duty of one of the ushers, Sidney H. Wall of Los Angeles, to light the candles just in advance of the entry of the bridal party. Mr. Wall is in the same legal firm of Los Angeles with the bridegroom, as is John W. Myers, his best man. The head usher, Edwin L. Gerhardt, now of San Francisco, and Robert Chapman, were junior college friends of Mr. Lindman, and Harvey L. Bodman was his bride's brother.

The bride's attendants pacing single file, were Mrs. June Riley and Miss Patricia Torrence gowned alike in rose moire taffeta, bolero costumes, and carrying deep blue delphinium tied with blue taffeta ribbon bows; her maid of honor, Miss Ruth Warner, sister of the bridegroom, wearing a deeper rose taffeta with pleated bolero, carrying a similar flower cluster, and her matron of honor, Mrs. Harvey L. Bodman, who carried Talisman rosebuds with her graceful frock of peacock blue taffeta moire.

Entry of Bride. Miss Bodman entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was radiant in her ivory satin gown, its form-fitting bodice buttoned down the back beneath the long folds of a tulip veil which swept to train length from a cluster of orchids in her hair. Orchids rested on the white-bound prayer book she carried, and lilies of the valley were knotted in their ribbon shower.

After the beautiful wedding service conducted by the Rev. O. Scott McFarland, the bridal party formed a reception line in the foyer. Mr. and Mrs. Bodman received with them, and Mr. Lindman's father, Wade Warner, was nearby. Mrs. Bodman wore a graceful frock in deep wineberry lace.

Relatives and close family friends were received later in the Visel Haughton studios, 425 West First street, where the bride has long been prominent as a member of this city's talented younger artists.

Charmingly flower-decked, the studio rooms made a beautiful setting, and music added to the atmosphere, with harp melodies played by Miss Katherine Walberg. Mrs. Nelson Visel aided in hostess duties; the bride's maids, Miss Alicia Marsee, had charge of the guest book, and refreshments were served from a lace spread table by Mrs. W. Lockwood Miller (June Arnold) and Mrs. Carl H. Lykke.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Lindman left for a month's honeymoon, the bride wore orchids with her modish rust tailleur, trimmed with fox fur. They will follow a stay in the mountain cabin at Big Bear of Judge and Mrs. Louis M. Myers, with a motor trip through northern California. Their return will be to a new home in Alhambra. Mr. Lindman's gift to his bride.

His duties will be in Los Angeles where he has been identified with a prominent legal firm since completing his studies at Harvard Law school. His bride has been prominent in social and artistic circles here, and is a member of Sigma Tau Psi sorority.

Two Birthdays Given Celebration at Party

Four years ago on Sunday, Janet Tidball celebrated the affair Saturday afternoon with a party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tidball, 1321 West Fourth street. Sharing birthday honors with the little maid was her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Tidball.

Games of variety interested children in the group during the afternoon, with prizes going to Earl Loving and Arlene Palmer.

Ice cream, fruit punch and cake were served by Mrs. William R. Tidball, assisted by Virginia Forney. Balloons and nutcups decking the table were in pink and green. Janet's birthday cake was placed on a mirror in the center of the table, and was circled with small figures of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. In addition, there was a prettily decorated cake for Mrs. Emma Tidball.

Present with Janet were her brother, Billie Tidball and June Beauchamp, Bobbie Beauchamp, Arlene Palmer, Nellie Lou Palmer, Dorothy Jiles, Marilyn Palmer, Joyce Loving, Earl Loving, Sharon Meyer, Roxan Meyer and Dawn Forney. Adults in the group with Mrs. Emma Tidball and Mrs. William R. Tidball were Mesdames Earl Loving, A. Palmer, Herbert Meyer and Virginia Forney.

Bride's Father Officiates At Her Beautiful Wedding

To that steadily lengthening list of Santa Ana brides who will treasure, with memories of their wedding day, the beautiful services conducted by the Rev. O. Scott McFarland, pastor of First Presbyterian church, may now be added a daughter of the manse. For on Saturday night lovely Mary Lou McFarland stood before her father to speak the vows uniting her in marriage to Charles Stewart Meece of Huntington Beach.

It was appropriate that this wedding should take place in a church whose present beauty is largely due to the efforts of the pastor reading the rites for his own child. Appropriate too were the choral numbers, for the bride has been a member of the choir, directed by Whitford L. Hall. Mrs. Harold Rhodes was at the organ, and from the choir loft at the front of the church wailed such melodies as "O for the Wings of a Dove" (Mendelssohn); "O Perfect Love" (Barnaby); the "Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin," sung as the processional for the wedding party, and Lutkin's "Benediction" at the close of the ceremony.

Autumn Theme

To the auditorium was given the rich beauty of autumn, with vivid leaves knotted in the ribbons securing shaggy white chrysanthemums to pew entrances. Seven-branched candlesticks were grouped at the altar, their white candles shining on massed white chrysanthemums.

Ushering were Messrs. Richard Clark James Ghosholm, Hal Miller, Jack Driggs, Walter Williams and Wayne Smithson. One of their duties was to trail the heavy white cords defining the bridal aisle as the young people gathered at the altar. There the Rev. Mr. McFarland was joined by Mr. Meece and his best man, Ted F. Meece, as the ushers led the advancing wedding party.

Bridesmaids entered two by two, Miss Marjorie Bettannier and Mrs. Chris Ema (Jean McAuley) leading. Their taffeta frocks in new rose, were fashioned with long petal-like skirts edged with ecru lace, continuing the motif of the lace-trimmed bodices. Each wore a flaring net veil in new rose, caught with deep-toned roses matching those of their ribbed taffeta muffs. The Misses Louise Sexton and Mary King wore frocks identical in mode but in raisin hue, exactly matching the autumn leaves seen about the church. Their veils repeated the tone and were caught with deep red roses like those on their muffs.

Miss Alice Claire McFarland as her sister's maid of honor, was in peacock blue taffeta, slightly different in mode from the bridesmaids' frocks, but with similar ecru lace trimming. Her blue veil had a cluster of golden hearted pink Sweethearts roses like those knotted in the ribbons of her blue taffeta muff.

A very dainty little flower girl was Edith Vorhis, in filmy pink georgette, and whose flaxen curls were tied with a blue ribbon the same hue as the big satin rose she carried and from which she dropped rose petals in the pathway of the bride.

In Bridal Beauty

It was on the arm of her brother, John W. McFarland, that Miss McFarland went to the marriage altar. Her princess gown was of transparent crushed velvet with long sleeves, a sweeping train and high Medici collar with a single seed pearl ornament at the throat line. Her tulip veil, sweeping beyond the train of her gown, was banded with Brussels lace from her mother's wedding lace, and had a Brussels lace coronet with clusters of orange blossoms. Unitarian church members and friends were advised today of a change in plan for Mexican supper and a program originally scheduled for Tuesday evening. Dr. Ernest Caldecott, who was to have been present, will be unable to attend, so plans for the dinner and the program have been postponed until October 25. However, there will be the usual weekly discussion meeting Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. in the church, with gubernatorial candidates to speak.

FUTURE PLANS

Glenwood Mission Inn in Riverside, Palm Springs and the Imperial Valley were to be included on the honeymoon trip of the young couple, and for traveling, the bride donned an Indies blue sheer wool costume trimmed with gray carbuncle and worn with Mandaray red accessories. Return will be to a home awaiting them at 3303 Orange avenue, Columbia Heights, Long Beach. Both young people continued their studies at University of Southern California after completing Santa Ana junior college.

That charm of the bride's personality which has appealed to her parents' church and social friends no less than to those of her own age, has resulted in a series of pretty affairs to compliment her in advance of her marriage, and the new home will have innumerable gifts to express the friendly interest of the community in her romance.

BRIDESMAIDS

Bridesmaids entered two by two, Miss Marjorie Bettannier and Mrs. Chris Ema (Jean McAuley) leading. Their taffeta frocks in new rose, were fashioned with long petal-like skirts edged with ecru lace, continuing the motif of the lace-trimmed bodices. Each wore a flaring net veil in new rose, caught with deep-toned roses matching those of their ribbed taffeta muffs. The Misses Louise Sexton and Mary King wore frocks identical in mode but in raisin hue, exactly matching the autumn leaves seen about the church. Their veils repeated the tone and were caught with deep red roses like those on their muffs.

Post-Vacation Affair
Enjoyed by
Auld Lang Syne Club

Meeting for their first post-vacation meeting, Auld Lang Syne members entertained late last week in the Abe Johnson home, 335 Myrtle street, Laguna Beach, had many experiences of summer travels to exchange, but found most interest in greeting a club bride and her husband. These honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Peterman of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Peterman was the former Emma King Wassum, charter member of the organization.

Mr. Peterman was one of several guests including the host himself, Abe Johnson, with Messrs. W. B. Harper and Roy Oldfield of Garden Grove, and two friends who arrived for the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Warling of Laguna Beach. Auld Lang Syne club members present with the hostess, Mrs. Jennie Johnson, were Mrs. Peterman, Miss Perle Head, Mrs. Grace Finn and Mrs. Mabel Lowell, Santa Ana; Miss Mettie Chaffee, Madames Estelle Harper, Carrie Chaffee, Agnes Oldfield, Mina Newsom, Agnes Stanley and Josie Nichols, Garden Grove; Mrs. Effie Kelly, Villa Park; Madames Fannie Newsom, Edith N. Lane and Rose M. Hill, Long Beach.

All enjoyed the arrangements made for their hostess for serving the mid-day covered dish dinner. For she had a garden full of beautiful zinnias from which to pull the choicest blooms for home and tables. Her daughter, Mrs. Mary Stromerson, aided in serving.

Club members will have their annual Thanksgiving session on Thursday, November 17, when Mrs. Joe Lowell will be hostess at covered dish dinner in her home, 926 North Flower street.

European Travels Are Vividly Described

Only recently returned from a summer trip to Europe, Mrs. Mary A. Linger was charmingly complimented late the past week, at a dinner party given by her daughters, the Misses Berneke and Corinne Linger, in the family home, 925 French street.

After their enjoyment of the dinner menu served to the accompaniment of many bright flowers, guests were deeply interested in hearing some of the details of Mrs. Linger's trip. She left in late June as a member of a travel party under leadership of Dr. Slater, pastor of South Pasadena First M. E. church.

Landing in Southampton, the party toured England and Scotland before crossing to the continent for interesting stays in Holland, Belgium, Germany, France, Austria, Italy and Switzerland. The most interesting cities, to the Santa Ana traveler, proved to be Venice and Rome, and she was especially impressed by the scenic wonders of the Alps. However she assured her friends that the best part of the entire journey was her return in early autumn to her own homeland, after sailing from Cherbourg.

Travel Idea Prevails
At Two Charming
Hospitalities

Travel talk dominated two recent parties at which Miss Alberta Greene entertained her home, 507 West Walnut street, welcoming two groups of guests who had expressed special interest in the summer trip which she made to Alaska.

Since so many of the guests had taken interesting trips recently, both parties were given over to informal discussion of travel experiences. Assisting Miss Greene in entertaining on both occasions was her mother Mrs. Lu Ella Greene.

The first affair extended hospitality to the Misses Lota Blythe, Mary Beasley, Hazel Berger, Helen Glancy, Wyllys Anderson, Maren Leonard and Mesdames Ellsworth Weakley and Lucille Greenleaf. Miss Beasley was in Europe this summer; Miss Glancy had several interesting trips; Mrs. Greenleaf has been to Hawaii.

Miss Greene showed pictures of her trip to Alaska and Siberia. She told of her enforced stay at Nome, where such a storm occurred that passengers were unable to get back to the boat until after a several days' stopover. Her visits to Akutan, a whaling station, and to other northern points were described. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Supper Party

The second affair at which Miss Greene entertained brought an intimate group together for supper. As she did on the first occasion, the hostess displayed a number of curios of her trip, including rare ivory. These ivory articles served as centerpiece at the table from which supper was served.

Guests were the Misses Marjorie Ann Matthes, Bernice Minder, Natalie Neff, Florence Messmer, Katherine Chapman, Martha Tuthill, Mary Tuthill, Juanita Pico. Miss Chapman returned early this month from travel in Europe; Miss Minder, Miss Neff and Miss Mary Tuthill made recent trips to Hawaii.

Hawaiian Theme Adds To Enjoyment of Bridge Party

Several weeks ago a reducing diet was given in this column, consisting largely of soy bean bread, made according to a certain formula. Lest users of this special bread think it no good, when on baking it flattens out, let me say that the bread is entirely digestible and the proper ration for this particular diet.

The soy bean replaces meat when combined with milk. If the reducing amount of starch is to be efficient it must contain the least possible amount of starch in the form of other flour. The calory value of a slice of this reducing bread similar in size to regulation bread, is still one hundred calories, only in soy bean bread the larger part of the calory count comes under the heading of protein. Protein foods replace tissue wear. Starches supply fuel food and promote fatty tissues when used to excess by over-weights. Highlight the protein foods, soft-pedal the starchy foods and steady reduction of unnecessary weight takes place.

Local Girl is Leader On U. C. L. A. Campus

Down for a brief end of the week visit with her mother, Mrs. Italy Lee, 1111 West Fifth street, Miss Betty Lee, a senior at University of California at Los Angeles, returned to that city Saturday, called by special school events.

Saturday evening featured the gala reception for all freshman and new students, especially complimenting the university president, Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul. Miss Lee was one of the hostesses. She has been accorded many honors and responsibilities in this, her final year, as she majors in physical education. One of these is the responsible post of initiation chairman for Frateres, which includes all women's campus organizations, both sorority and non-sorority. The object of Frateres, is to promote friendliness among the students, and one of Miss Lee's duties will be to accompany the dean of women, Miss Helen Laughlin, on calls to all chapters and dormitories. She will also supervise initiation ceremonies throughout the week set apart for that phase of university life.

As vice president of the U. C. L. A. Women's Athletic club, the popular Santa Ana Jaycee alumna, will be in charge of the approaching inter-school meet in which physical education department of U.C.L.A. and U.S.C. will join at an early date.

SITS UP AND PEERS AT FATHER, WHO, WHAT WITH THE BREATHING IN HIS EAR AND ALL, STIRS UNEASILY

EXPLAINS HE ONLY WANTED TO SEE IF HE WAS AWAKE, AND LIES GENTLY JIGGLING THE BED

THRUSTS FEET UP IN AIR TO MAKE A TENT OF BEDCLOTHES, UNCOVERING FATHER'S FEET

SAYS HE'S SORRY, AND STARTS TUCKING HIM UP AGAIN, TICKLING FATHER'S FEET IN SO DOING

Many Pretty Parties Arranged to Honor Guest From East

Reminiscent of Miss Carolyn Opp's recent trip to Hawaii were appointments for a party at which she entertained Thursday evening in her home, 501 East Twentieth street.

Pictures and art objects which the hostess collected during her summer vacation were displayed during the evening. Table prizes purchased on the Islands rewarded Mesdames Walter Hiskey, A. L. Goddicksen and Edward Wagner for their high scores in bridge.

Sandwiches, ice cream, cookies and iced tea were served by Miss Opp, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Goddicksen. Little Hula dancer dolls marked each place at tables.

That interesting visitor in Santa Ana from St. Joseph, Mo., Mrs. Carl Clair, a guest in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Geiger, 621 Riverine avenue, is inspiring many pleasant social courtesies on the part of her sister's friends.

Friday afternoon, Mrs. Geiger arranged for a score or more of these friends to meet her sister, by giving a tea in her home. Mrs. Lucian Dalton joined her in hostess duties. They used quantities of bright yellow chrysanthemums in combination with white blossoms, and the effect was especially lovely at the tea table where Mrs. Clifford Patrick presided at the silver service.

Mrs. Patrick was prettily gowned in pale rose crepe. Mrs. Clair wore a corsage of sunny blossoms with her afternoon frock of teal blue and gold. Teal blue crepe was also chosen by Mrs. Geiger, while her co-hostess, Mrs. Dalton, wore a bouffant net frock of navy blue and white.

On the previous day, Mrs. Patrick had planned a tour of Hollywood for the eastern guest, who was interested in seeing many screen celebrities, especially at the Brown Derby where the group dined as Mrs. Patrick's guests.

The Ted Faulkners of Orange avenue entertained at dinner Saturday evening, in compliment to Mrs. Clair, and invitations are out for a tea tomorrow afternoon in the Kenneth Loughton home, 2660 South Birch street, where Mrs. Loughton, Mrs. Joseph Wilson and Mrs. John Fraley will be hostesses. Yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Geiger took their sister on a trip south to San Diego and San Juanas.

DIET-HOW-TO-MAKE
Lettuce-Pineapple Salad: use 1-4 head lettuce (small) torn apart. Dice 1 ring of pineapple and add to lettuce. Mix 1 rounded tablespoonful of cottage cheese with 2 teaspoons mayonnaise; add milk and lemon juice to thin. Pour over Dinner Hamburger: season the meat with salt, pepper, dash of garlic salt and a teaspoon of steak sauce. Mix well, form into flat cakes, arrange in a sizzling hot pan, and slip under the broiler flame as long as the oven is being used for baking potatoes. Otherwise, do the hamburger in a dry skillet.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

MINIATURE CAMERAS

The original of this picture is a transparency in natural color, made with an inexpensive miniature camera. Good in black-and-white, it glows with life in color.

UNDoubtedly most Snapshot Guild members have longed to own a miniature camera. There's a fascination in these beautiful little instruments, with their fast lenses, quick shutters, easy focusing, convenient size and instant readiness for action. They are cameras one can keep at hand all the time, ready for a picture chance the moment it appears.

But, in comparison to inexpensive box and folding cameras, prices of the de luxe miniatures have been a bit too steep for many of us. True value for every penny—but too many pennies. So, I think, most of us will welcome the arrival of the true miniatures in the moderate price range which have recently been announced.

The other day, I saw a beautifully made miniature, with a sharp-cutting f.5.6 lens, for only $16.50—a camera capable of taking black-and-white pictures under adverse light conditions as well as color film to obtain gorgeous transparencies for projection. A similar camera, but with a faster lens, was priced at $27.50. Both were sturdy, well-built, and capable of doing excellent work. These are about bottom prices for miniatures capable of taking good color pictures.

John van Guilder.

This Is the Way to Move a House Across a River

Not a houseboat but a 41-ton, eight-room residence for land use is the house shown here crossing the Illinois river at Peoria, Ill. Towed by a power launch the home was successfully moved from the side of the river on which it was built to a site opposite.

Boats Smashed Against Rocky Shore

Two of the hundreds of craft smashed ashore on the eastern seaboard by hurricane and tidal waves are pictured above at Port Washington, Long Island. Scores died and hundreds were missing in the storm which struck hardest along the southern Long Island shore where mountainous waves and furious winds swept away houses by the block.

A House Divided Still Stands

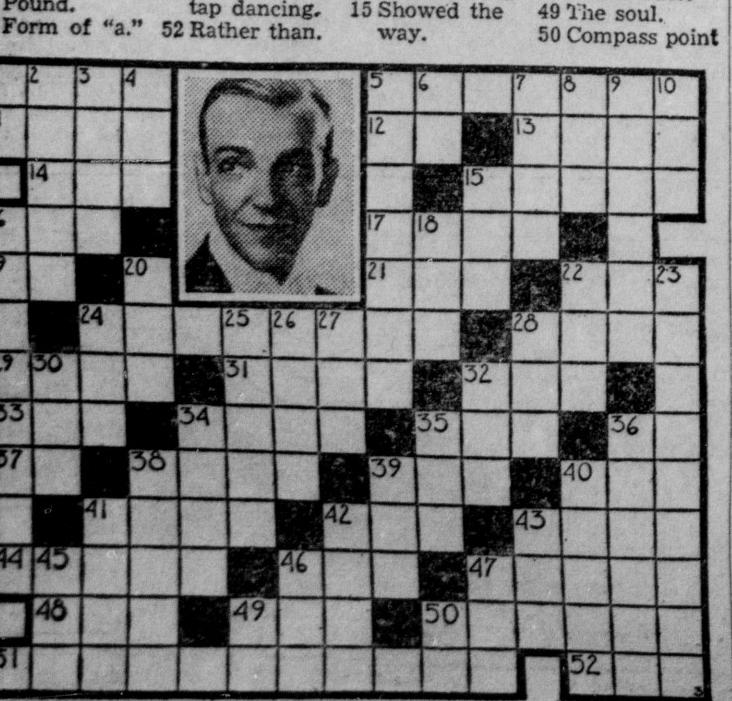

Cut cleanly in two by the hurricane but still standing, this house at fashionable West Hampton, Long Island, was one of the many freaks of the storm that laid waste great areas of the eastern seaboard. A wing was torn from the main section of the house.

served a fish story with Barney sauce. Seems that Nancy and Randolph Scott went fishing in the river near Pineville. Randy east, reeled in and brought to shore—not a fish, but a fountain pen. He bowed deeply, and—"Miss Kelly," he said, "I think the fish want your autograph!"

With bunch of the lot-workers, I stood this morning outside the music building at the Golway studio, listening to Jascha Heifetz play the violin. We were enthralled with the concert—no one was saying a word. And then, in the middle of a particularly fine passage from the Largo, a little Japanese dancer from the "Trade Winds" set strolled by—clad in a scanty sarong and a very attractive smile. First one, then another, of the boys looked up, stared, and started to talk—about that curvaceous little dancer. Heifetz could have switched to "A-tisket, a-tasket" and no one would have noted the change. That's Hollywood for you. It's also Timbuctoo.

Wally Ford tells about the momentous developments in the life of a somewhat antiquated leading lady he knows. "Imagine," he says, "she had her option, her purse and her face lifted—all in a single week!"

Expect 150 At League Conclave

PASADENA, Oct. 3.—(UPI)—Delegates began arriving here today for the annual state convention of the California League of Women Voters which opens a three-day meeting tomorrow at the Huntington hotel. More than 150 delegates are expected to attend.

One of the chief events on the convention program is a symposium to be held Tuesday evening on "The Problem of Relief: What Can California Do About It."

Among prominent league members who will attend the convention are Mrs. Warner Clark of San Francisco, state president; Mrs. C. L. Voss, state director and former state president; Mrs. H. C. Moreno of Palo Alto, state treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Lamson, executive secretary, and Mrs. Paul Eliel, state chairman of government and economic welfare.

Study Effects Of New Labor Laws

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(UPI)—Seven representatives of most of the nation's daily newspapers today discussed with Wage Hour Administrator Andrews the application of the new federal fair labor standards act to the newspaper industry.

W. F. Wiley, of the Cincinnati, O., Enquirer, chairman of the group, said the meeting with Andrews was "purely inquisitive" and that no request was made for exemption.

Elisha Hanson, attorney for the American Newspaper Publishers association, said the group furnished Andrews with factual information and that written data probably will be submitted later.

"We are going to give him all the information about the business that we can," Hanson said. "After that, it's his baby."

SACRAMENTO TAKES SERIES FROM SEALS

SAN FRANCISCO—(UP)—The Sacramento ball club today pocketed $5000 in playoff money after taking a doubleheader from San Francisco yesterday and winning the Pacific Coast league playoff series.

There were steam automobiles rumbling over English highways as early as 1825, according to Prof. John S. Worley of the University of Michigan.
